ORDER

AND NOW, this 14th day of December, 2015, upon consideration of “Defendant Comenity Capital Bank’s Motion to Compel Arbitration and to Dismiss Plaintiff’s Claims” (Doc. No. 6), it is hereby ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED as uncontested.¹ The Clerk of Court shall mark this case CLOSED.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Mitchell S. Goldbrg

MITCHELL S. GOLDBERG, J.

¹ Defendants filed the motion to dismiss on November 4, 2015. On November 23, 2015, an Order was entered directing Plaintiff to file a response within twenty-one (21) days. The Order explicitly stated “Plaintiff shall respond within fourteen (14) days of the date of this Order. Should Plaintiff fail to respond, the Court will treat Defendant’s motion as unopposed.” Plaintiff failed to file a response. As such, the motion will be granted as uncontested pursuant to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1.
